- Step 8. Deliver the presentation to the class
- Step 9. Self assess the presentation

Step 2: Analyze the audience

- Audiences are egocentric
  - Must relate your message to an audience's existing interests/concerns, knowledge, and beliefs.
- Examine the demographic traits of the audience
  - Age
  - gender/sex
  - racial, ethnic, or cultural background
  - religious views
  - group membership
  - occupation, education, intelligence
    - E.g. Quantum computing explained by Dr. Talia Gershon

Step 3. Determine the specific purpose

- Understand the nature of the presentation
  - Design review
  - Sales pitch
  - Demonstration
- Translate the purpose of your speech to what the audience care about
  - Practice: Summarize your project with one question that will entice most of the audience.
    - e.g. “How to keep your audience ‘alive’?”

Step 5. Organize and outline the presentation

What does “alive” mean?

How to keep them “alive”?

How to revive them?

Step 6. Prepare visual aids

Loren Shure, MathWorks

Step 6. Prepare visual aids

- Visual aids should be substantive
- Visual aids should be easily seen by the audience

Step 6. Prepare visual aids

- Visual aids should be substantive
- Visual aids should be easily seen by the audience
- Speakers should not obstruct the audience's view of the visual aids
- Maintain eye contact while using the visual aids

- Explain the visual aids
- Practice the presentation WITH the visual aids

Step 8. Deliver the presentation

- Gestures and movement
- Vocal variety
- Avoid using filled pauses such as "um," "uh," "like," and "you know."
- Eye contact and facial expression
- Stage Fright?
  - Practice, practice, and practice more!

Be ON TIME!

- Average adults' attention span: 20 min

iqpolls.com

- Respect the audience (don't steal their time!)
- Conclusion:
  - Signal the end of the speech
  - Reinforce the audience's understanding of, or commitment to, the central idea
  - Over-time conclusion = @!#$!*&(!

How to “revive” your audience?

- Don’t count on it!
- Try with interruptions:
  - Interactive sessions
  - Examples / anecdotes
  - Recap and transit
- Best bet: Conclusions

Two final secrets for good presentations

1. Know your material thoroughly

- Audience can tell when you're hesitant about what you're saying and not sure of the material

2. Show enthusiasm for your topic

- Enthusiasm is contagious – audience won't be enthusiastic about your topic if you aren't
- If you're enthusiastic, the audience will wonder why and pay more attention to find out

In conclusion

- Study the audience
- Start with an enticing theme (or question)
- Design the presentation around the audience
- Keep your audience alive
- Revive the audience if needed
- Be on time!
